THE ANCIENT

Doings in the City of the Holy Faith.

Special Correspondence of the Gazette.

SANTA FE, Dec. 27.—Several monied men from the east are in town looking around for real estate and mining investments. They will probably go out to the Cerrillos.

The new Episcopal church building is fast approaching completion. It will be a handsome stone structure.

The police and the justices' courts have been kept busy recently.

The Wallace Sisters did not draw while in Santa Fe.

The Democrat may blossom into a daily on the first of the year, but then it may not. Such a thing has been threatened several times before.

The eastern trains came in several hours late.

Secretary Ritch's "Blue Book" for the use of the coming Legislature will contain much of interest and importance. The New Mexican is getting it out.

Christmas was a quiet day in Santa Fe.

This city is enjoying a building boom many business houses and residences going up.

Billiards are now all the rage. Several tournaments are in progress and much betting going on.

The New Mexican will enlarge to an eight-column paper in two weeks.

Harry Fisher, of the A. T. & S. F., left last night for his home in Milwaukee. He was seriously ill while here, but was pulled safely through it by Dr. Seiber.

No small-pox in Santa Fe.

A Staab's new residence is nearly completed. It will cost over $20,000.

The English speaking Catholics here are fixing up and generally renovating the old Guadalupe church.

Living is cheap in Santa Fe. Butter and eggs fifty cents, and apples two pounds for twenty-five cents. Everything else in proportion.

The Ninth Cavalry band is much missed. The Fourth Cavalry music grinders never give any concerts on the Plaza.

A guest at the Exchange hotel had his room burglarized Monday night of a trunk and other articles. No clue to the thief.

F. E. Chisholm, of the Mining Record, is at the Exchange.

George Leas, the conductor, was in town to-day.

Some fine ores from mines on the Pecos river, above Pecos, are on exhibition at Herlow's.

The San Francisco laundrymen who recently located here, have skipped the town leaving their rent unpaid.

The water works don't seem to be moving ahead very rapidly. The question of a street railway is still in abeyance.

The holiday-business rush is still in force.

Building material is greatly in demand and the supply is insufficient. Brick and lumber are badly wanted.

Governor Sheldon is back, bringing Mrs. S. with him.

Judge Prince and wife have returned from Tucson.

The Gladstone Mining Company is the latest corporation, capital, $1,000,000. Principal scene of operations, White Oaks.

A recent arrival named McGannon complained that he was held up last night on San Francisco street and relieved of $80, a watch and other valuables. This does not sound well for our vigilant peace preservers, right on the Main street of the city. Two men have been arrested on suspicion.

The southern train was four hours late to-day.

Johnson, a Kansan, has been arrested here by Deputy Sheriff McGannon, of that state, charged with stealing hogs there. He goes back for a hearing.

More recruits to go south in a few days.

Gen. Smith, revenue collector, gave a reception to his friends on Monday, his 61st birthday.

No ice seen around these parts yet.

TALBOT.

Booming Socorro.

The mining interests of Socorro are assuming a wide spread circulation. On last Saturday morning a bar of silver weighing 2,200 ounces was shipped from this young and flourishing mining camp.

Great activity exists in every line of business. A great number of dwellings are being erected and the town is fast assuming a metropolitan air.

The Knights of Pythias gave a grand ball on last Monday night, which drew forth a large and very respectable assemblage.

Like all new mining camps Socorro has had its share of bad characters, but the law-abiding citizens are determined at all hazards that order shall reign in future.

The citizens are making great efforts in behalf of education. Father Bernard, a Catholic priest, who has been a missionary here for the past twenty-two years is engaged in the erection of a college in which both a commercial and classical education will be given.

Father Bernard states that his church at Socorro was built over 200 years ago by Indians under the direction of the Spaniards. The Sisters of Loretto have charge of the school here and educate one hundred pupils. The Methodists have a very neat church edifice, and other denominations are about erecting places of worship.

The town is well supplied with hotels among which are the American, Palace, Park House, and the Jewett Hotel, which is capable of accommodating one hundred guests. Colonel Charles F. Jewett and his estimable wife dispense the hospitalities. The colonel is well known in Kansas City where he resided a number of years. He came to Las Vegas in 1878 and erected the St. Nicholas hotel, which he conducted until the latter part of 1879, when he shook the dust of Las Vegas from his feet and planted them once more in the sacred soil.

of Kansas City, where he remained until two months ago when he immigrated to Socorro and opened the present spacious hotel fronting on the Plaza.

Mr. James Mustard, a son of the Emerald Isle, does the duties of the office. Should any of the patrons of the Jewett feel ill the warm name of James will serve as a balm for their aches.

California has one thousand artisan wells.

The latest slang among ulstered young men is, "Well, I should shiver."

The administrator of the Mark Hopkins estate in San Francisco was required to give a bond in the sum of $13,000,000.

Cattle men in the northeast who have watched the signs of the weather for many seasons say that the winter will be mild.

It is said that thirty persons in a small town of Michigan were poisoned recently by eating sausages. This comes of buying brass collars on dogs.

Steps have been taken in Chicago for the establishment of an institution in which women addicted to stimulants and opiates may be reformed.

"What is the moon good for?" asked the teacher; "what are its principal uses?" And the smart boy looked up from the foot of the class and said: "To rest the gas companies."
